PART 1: AIMS and OBJECTIVES

COFFS COAST COMMUNITY RADIO (CCCR) has a commitment to:

- 1) apply for and to hold a community radio broadcasting licence
- 2) abide by ABA standards and Community Broadcasting guidelines and legislation
- 3) establish and operate a community broadcasting station and to erect, furnish and equip audio studios and production facilities of broadcast standard for appropriate use by the community
- 4) foster the development and ideals of community broadcasting and to subscribe to the Community Broadcasting Code of Practice, and in particular:
 - a) to seek all possible participation of members in all aspects of CCCR, including management, operations, programming and program production
 - b) to actively discourage the broadcast of material which is sexist, racist or which explicitly promotes drug-taking, violent or illegal acts or specific political parties or is deemed to be offensive to the general community in either language or content
- 5) Provide comprehensive training in the various facets of broadcasting activities and the facilities and opportunities to develop and utilise those skills for the benefits of the community
- 6) Actively encourage participation and experimentation in all aspects of community radio operation by any and all community members, including individuals in such special groups as the handicapped, aged, housebound, the unemployed and the print handicapped
- 7) Not discriminate against or in favour of any person or group in regard to sex, race, political or religious beliefs
- 8) Serve as a channel for the communication and dissemination of information relevant to both the community's and the individual's needs and desires
- 9) Promote the work of Australian musicians and performers and play throughout the day their music, at all times exceeding the minimum Australian content provision outlined in the Community Broadcasting Code of Practice.
- 10) Provide broadcasting and recording facilities to encourage Australian music and spoken talent

- 11) Identify and attempt to meet community needs and interests that are not adequately covered by the existing media
- 12) Register the community's cultural, recreational, educational, social and artistic resource and provide outlets for creative talent
- 13) Promote and provide for a variety in programming so that everyone finds something of interest at sometime and to schedule programs as fairly as possible with preference (if necessary) given to programs that are both innovative and locally produced
- 14) Promote community harmony and co-operation in our broadcast area. It will also maintain communication and wherever possible, co-operation with media whose service overlaps ours, and with neighbouring community stations
- 15) Provide prompt, reliable emergency communications
- 16) Record, publish and distribute material relating to broadcasting and music including tapes, CD's and printed matter whether for sale or for disseminating through access arrangements with other community broadcasters
- 17) Inform members and other interested individuals about the aims and operations of CCCR, about Community broadcasting, its aims and activities of participating groups and individuals through station programming and the establishment of a newsletter or programming guide.
- 18) Support and co-operate with any kindred body
- 19) Appoint, employ, remove or suspend staff as may be necessary or convenient for the smooth operation of CCCR according to these principles
- 20) Keep the members informed of station policy and development through newsletters and regular publicity
- 21) Keep a complaints file with all complaints examined at each monthly meeting unless deemed as urgent, in which case they will be dealt with as soon as possible by the relevant committee
- 22) Always ensures a copy of the full Constitution be available at the station for members to peruse

PART 2: RULES AND PROCEDURES

As an INCORPORATED Association, we have adopted, with two amendments, the MODEL RULES as set forth by the NSW DEPARTMENT OF FAIR TRADING for the INCORPORATION OF ASSOCIATIONS (1994).

The amendments relate to Part 2, "Membership" and "nomination of Membership".

The reason for the amendments is to ensure decision-making is always held by the whole association.

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1 Definitions

(1) In this constitution :

the Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 2009

the Association means Coffs Coast Community Radio Inc.

Board means the Committee of the Association required by section 28 of the Act

Director-General means the Director-General of the Department of Services, Technology and Administration.

Eligible Member means a member who :

- (a) has been a member for at least 45 days before the commencement of the relevant meeting of members, and
- (b) has paid all money due and payable by the member to the association.

Life Member means a person who has been duly elected as a life member of the association in accordance with these Rules.

Member means a member of the association including a Life Member.

Ordinary Board member means a member of the Board who is not an office bearer of the association, as referred to in rule 14(1).

the Regulation means the Associations Incorporation Regulation 2010

Secretary means :

- (a) the person holding office under these rules as secretary of the association, or
- (b) if no such person holds that office - the public officer of the association.

Special general meeting means a general meeting of the association other than an annual general meeting.

(2) In these rules :

- (a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty, and
- (b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, if the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

(3) The provisions of the Interpretation Act 1987 apply to and in respect of this constitution in the same manner as those provisions would so apply if this constitution was an instrument made under the Act.

PART 2 - MEMBERSHIP

2 Membership qualifications

A person is qualified to be a member if, but only if:

- (a) the person is a person referred to in section 15(1) (a), (b) or (c) of the Act and has not ceased to be a member at any time after incorporation of the association under the Act, or
- (b) the person has applied for membership of the association as provided by rule 3.

3 Application for membership

- (1) An application for membership of the association must be made by the applicant in writing on the form as set out in Appendix 1 of these rules.
- (2) The applicant shall become a member on lodging the application form accompanied by the required membership fee.
- (3) Upon receipt of the application form and membership fee, the Secretary must enter the applicant's name on the register of members.

4 Cessation of membership

A person ceases to be a member if the person:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) resigns membership, or
- (c) is expelled from the association, or
- (d) fails to pay the annual membership fee under Rule 9 (2) within 3 months after the fee is due.

5 Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the association :

- (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person, and
- (b) terminates on cessation of the person's membership.

6 Resignation of membership

- (1) A member may resign from membership of the association by first giving to the secretary written notice of at least 1 month (or such other period as the Board may determine) of the member's intention to resign and, on the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.

(2) If a member ceases to be a member under sub-clause (1), and, in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the secretary must make the appropriate entry in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

7 Life Membership

(1) Every Life Member shall, during his/her membership of the Association, be entitled to all the privileges of a member but without being liable for payment of an admission fee or the annual subscription.

(2) Any person who shall be deemed to warrant election as Life Member may be nominated by the Board.

(3) Nomination must be in writing to the secretary no later than twenty eight (28) days prior to the annual general meeting and the notification must include details of the nominee and the Board's reasons for the nomination.

(4) The secretary must give the members notice the proposal for Life Membership is to be considered at the next annual general meeting as a special resolution and shall incorporate in such notice details of the nominee and the reason put forward by the Board for the nomination.

(5) The nominee shall become a Life Member if the proposal for such membership is passed as a special resolution at the annual general meeting.

(6) Not more than two (2) Life Members shall be elected in one year.

8 Register of members

(1) The secretary of the association must establish and maintain a register of members of the association specifying the name and postal address of each person who is a member together with the date on which the person became a member.

(2) The register of members must be kept in New South Wales :

- (a) at the main premises of the association or
- (b) if the association has no premises, at the association's official address, or
- (c) in the possession of the secretary.

(3) Subject to Rule 8(4) a member may obtain a copy of any part of the register on payment of a fee of not more than $1 for each page copied.

(4) Each member, existing or new, shall be deemed to have requested that any information contained in the register of members (other than the member's name) must not be made available for inspection to any member.

(5) A member must not use information about a person obtained from the register to contact or send material to the person, other than for :

- (a) the purposes of sending the person a newsletter, a notice in respect of a meeting or other event relating to the association, or
- b) any other purpose necessary to comply with a requirement of the Act or the Regulation.

9 Fees

(1) A member other than a Life Member must, on application for membership, pay to the association the annual membership fee applicable at the time or, if some other amount is determined by the Board, that other amount.

(2) A member other than a Life Member must pay to the association an annual membership fee of $ 2 or, if some other amount is determined by the Board, that other amount and payment shall be made before 1 July each year.

10 Members' liabilities

The liability of a member to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the association or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the association is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the association as required in rule 9.

11 Disciplining of members

(1) A complaint may be made to the Board by any person that a member of the association :

- (a) has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of these rules, or
- (b) has willfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interest of the association.

(2) The Board may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.

(3) If the Board decides to deal with the complaint, the Board :

- (a) must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned and
- (b) must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the Board in connection with the complaint, and
- (c) must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.

(4) The Board may, by resolution, expel the member from the association or suspend the member from membership of the association if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances.

(5) If the Board expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken :

- (a) cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken.
- (b) detail the reasons given by the Board for having taken that action and
- (c) note the member's right of appeal under Rule 12.

(6) The expulsion or suspension does not take effect :

- (a) until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or
- (b) if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the association confirms the resolution under rule 12, whichever is the later .

12 Right of appeal of disciplined member

(1) A member may appeal to the association in general meeting against a resolution of the Board under rule 11, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.

(2) The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.

(3) On receipt of a notice from the member under clause (1), the secretary must notify the Board which is to convene a general meeting of the association to be held within 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.

(4) At a general meeting of the association convened under clause (3) :

- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
- (b) the Board and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both, and
- (c) the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.

(5) The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by members present at that meeting.

13 Resolution of disputes

(1) A dispute between a member and another member (in their capacity as members), or a dispute between a member or members and the association, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation under the Community Justice Centres Act 1983.

(2) If a dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a community justice centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration.

(3) The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

(4) A complaint lodged and dealt with pursuant to Rule 11 is not a dispute for the purposes of Rule 13.

PART 3 - THE BOARD

14 Powers of the Board

(1) Subject to the Act, the Regulation and this constitution and at any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, the Board:

- (a) is to control and manage the affairs of the association, and
- (b) may exercise all such functions as may be exercised by the association, other than those functions that are required by this constitution to be exercised by a general meeting of members, and
- (c) has power to perform all such acts and do all such things as appear to the Board to be necessary or desirable for the proper management of the affairs of the association.

(2) Until otherwise resolved by the association in general meeting, the Board's power to appoint and employ staff must not be exercised.

15 Composition and membership of Board

(1) The Board is to consist of :

- (a) the office bearers of the association, and
- (b) at least three ordinary Board members, each of whom is to be elected at the annual general meeting of the association under clause 16.

(2) The total number of Board members is to be seven.

(3) The office bearers of the association are as follows :

- (a) the president,
- (b) the vice-president,
- (c) the treasurer,
- (d) the secretary.

(4) A Board member may hold up to two offices (other than both the President and Vice-President)

(5) Each member of the Board is, subject to this constitution, to hold office until the conclusion of the annual general meeting following the date of the member's election, but is eligible for re-election.

(6) A member must have previously served at least 12 months as an ordinary Board member or office bearer to be eligible for election to a position of office bearer of the association.

16 Election of members

- (1) Nominations of candidates for election as office-bearers or as ordinary Board member :
 - (a) must be made in writing in a form approved by the Board from time to time, signed by 2 members and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination), and
 - (b) must be delivered to the secretary of the association at least 30 days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.
- (2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the Board, the candidates nominated are taken to be elected and further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.
- (3) If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions remaining on the Board are taken to be casual vacancies.
- (4) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.
- (5) If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot is to be held.
- (6) The ballot for the election of office-bearers and ordinary members of the Board is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the Board may direct.
- (7) A person nominated as a candidate for election as an office-bearer or as an ordinary Board member must be a member of the association.

17 Secretary

- (1) The secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after being appointed as secretary, lodge notice with the association of his or her address.
- (2) It is the duty of the secretary to keep minutes of:
 - (a) all appointments of office-bearers and members of the Board,
 - (b) the names of members of the Board present at a Board meeting or a general meeting,
 - (c) all proceedings at Board meetings and general meetings, and
 - (d) maintain such other records or perform such other acts as are required by these rules or the Act or the Regulation.
- (3) Minutes of proceedings at a meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.

18 Treasurer

It is the duty of the treasurer of the association to ensure:

- (a) that all money due to the association is collected and received and that all payments authorised by the association are made, and
- (b) that correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the association, including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the association.

19 Casual Vacancies

(1) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the Board, the Board may appoint a member to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed is to hold office, subject to this constitution, until the conclusion of the annual general meeting for election of officers next following the date of the appointment.

(2) A casual vacancy in the office of a member of the Board occurs if the member :

- (a) dies, or
- (b) ceases to be a member, or
- (c) becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or
- (d) resigns office by notice in writing given to the secretary, or
- (e) is removed from office under clause 20, or
- (f) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (g) is absent without the consent of the Board from three consecutive meetings of the Board, or
- (h) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty for which the maximum penalty on conviction is imprisonment for not less than 3 months, or
- (i) is prohibited from being a director of a company under Part 2D.6 (Disqualification from managing corporations) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

20 Removal of Board members

(1) The association in general meeting may by resolution remove any member of the Board from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.

(2) If a member of the Board to whom a proposed resolution referred to in clause (1) relates makes representations in writing to the secretary or president (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representation be notified to the members of the association, the secretary or the president may send a copy of the representations to each member of the association or, if the representations are not so sent, the member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

21 Board Meetings and quorum

- (1) The Board must meet at least 3 times in each period of 12 months at such place and time as the Board may determine.
- (2) Additional meetings of the Board may be convened by the president or by any member the Board.
- (3) Oral or written notice of a meeting of the Board must be given by the secretary to each member of the Board at least 48 hours (or such other period as many be unanimously agreed on by the members of the Board) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.
- (4) Notice of a meeting given under clause (3) must specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and no business other than that business is to be transacted at the meeting, except business which the Board members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent business.
- (5) Any 3 members of the Board constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the Board.
- (6) No business is to be transacted by the Board unless a quorum is present and if, within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting is to stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week.
- (7) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.
- (8) At a meeting of the Board:
 - (a) the president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president is to preside, or
 - (b) if the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, such one of the remaining members of the Board as may be chosen by the members present at the meeting is to preside.

22 Delegation by Board to sub-committee

- (1) The Board may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one or more sub-committees (consisting of such member or members as the Board thinks fit) the exercise of such of the functions of the Board as are specified in the instrument, other than:
 - (a) this power of delegation, and
 - (b) a function which is a duty imposed on the Board by the Act or by any other law.

(2) A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee under this rule may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the sub-committee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

(3) A delegation under this rule may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.

(4) Despite any delegation under this rule, the Board may continue to exercise any function delegated.

(5) Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this rule has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the Board.

(6) The Board may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this rule.

(7) A sub-committee may meet and adjourn, as it thinks proper.

23 Voting and decisions

(1) Questions arising at a meeting of the Board or of any sub-committee appointed by the Board are to be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the Board or sub-committee present at the meeting.

(2) Each member present at a meeting of the Board or of any sub-committee appointed by the Board (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote but, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.

(3) Subject to rule 21(5), the Board may act despite any vacancy on the Board.

(4) Any act or thing done or suffered, or purporting to have been done or suffered, by the Board or by a sub-committee appointed by the Board, is valid and effectual despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the appointment or qualification of any member of the Board or sub-committee.

PART 4 - GENERAL MEETINGS

24 Annual general meetings - holding of

The association must hold its annual general meeting :

- (a) within 6 months after the close of the association's financial year or
- (b) within such later time as may be allowed by the Director-General or prescribed by the Regulation.

25 Annual general meetings - calling of and business

(1) The annual general meeting of the association is, subject to the Act and to rule 24, to be convened on such date and at such place and time as the Board thinks fit.

(2) In addition to any other business which may be transacted at an annual general meeting, the business of an annual general meeting is to include the following:

- (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting,
- (b) to receive from the Board reports on the activities of the association during the last preceding financial year,
- (c) to elect office-bearers of the association and ordinary members of the Board,
- (d) to receive and consider any financial statement or report required to be submitted to members under the Act .

(3) An annual general meeting must be specified as such in the notice convening it.

26 Special general meetings - calling of

(1) The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the association.

(2) The Board must, on the requisition in writing of at least 5 per cent of the total number of members, convene a special general meeting of the association.

(3) A requisition of members for a special general meeting:

- (a) must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting, and
- (b) must be signed by the members making the requisition, and
- (c) must be lodged with the secretary, and

(d) may consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.

(4) If the Board fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 1 month after that date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.

(5) A special general meeting convened by a member or members as referred to in clause (4) must be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as general meetings are convened by the Board.

27 Notice

(1) Except if the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary must, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, give a notice to each member specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

(2) If the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary must, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to each member specifying, in addition to the matter required under clause(1), the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.

(3) No business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting is to be transacted at the meeting except, in the case of an annual general meeting, business which may be transacted under rule 25 (2).

(4) A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the secretary who must include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

28 Quorum for General Meetings

(1) No item of business is to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.

(2) Ten members present in person (being members entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.

(3) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

(a) if convened on the requisition of members, is to be dissolved, and

(b) in any other case, is to stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

(4) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being at least 5) are to constitute a quorum.

29 Presiding member

(1) The president or, in the president's absence, the vice- president, is to preside as chairperson at each general meeting of the association.

(2) If the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, the members present must elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

30 Adjournment

(1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

(2) If a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary must give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each member of the association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(3) Except as provided in clauses (1) and (2), notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

31 Making of decisions

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the association is to be determined by either:

Appendix 2

Clause 32

39 Voting on special resolutions (taken exactly from the Act)

- (1) A resolution is passed by an association as a special resolution:
 - (a) at a meeting of the association of which notice has been given to its members no later than 21 days before the date on which the meeting is held, or
 - (b) in a postal ballot conducted by the association, or
 - (c) in such other manner as the Director-General may direct, if it is supported by at least three-quarters of the votes cast by members of the association who, under the association's constitution, are entitled to vote on the proposed resolution.
- (2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) (a) must include the terms of the resolution and a statement to the effect that the resolution is intended to be passed as a special resolution.
- (3) A postal ballot referred to in subsection (1) (b) may only be conducted in relation to resolutions of a kind that the association's constitution permits to be voted on by means of a postal ballot and, if conducted, must be conducted in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) Direction under subsection (1) (c) may not be given unless the Director-General is satisfied that, in the circumstances, it is impracticable to require votes to be cast in the manner provided by subsection (1) (a) or (b). Also other sections of the Act into Secretary's reference book if needed.
